Dan Whitsel Jr, was surprised last evening by a party of young ladies and gentlemen at his home at 608 East Orchard street Games and music occupied the attention of the surprisers until a late hour refreshments were served Among those present were Misses Lina Livingstone, Rose Ruckles, Effie Milburn, Carrie Chandler Ray Shimer, Myrtie Shimer, Mary Hayden of Sullivan, Em Daniels, Lulu Horton, Della Horton, Ludie Yoke, of Pana, Oda Foster, Vana Bants, of Tuscola, and Messrs Frank Marsh, Charles Hamsher, Harry Orchard, Mahlon Goreham Rob't Williams, Clarence Newell, Bart Foster, Hugh Odor, Willie Wayne and Bert Conklin

A Scarcity of Food Products

An authority says that a famine in food supplies threatens housekeepers generally The potato crop of the United States will be 100,000 000 bushels short this year, so say dealers, and in Europe a deficiency of 233 000,000 is reported The shortage in fruits, vegetables, etc, will be in proportion to that of potatoes. In consequence of this prices have been advanced on most articles required in household consumption, in some cases the advance being 100 per cent In meats alone is the food supply likely to be adequate for the wants of the country

Death of Mrs. J R Gorin's Sister

The following obituary taken from a Nebraska paper announces the death of Mrs Nancy Fawcett Hersey, only sister of Mrs. J. R Gorin, of this city

MRS NANCY HERSEY

The death of Mrs Hersey occurred at 6 45 o clock August 5th 1890 at her home in Hastings Nebraska

Mrs Hersey was 73 years of age the 18th day of last July She was born in Virginia, and in her early days moved to Tennessee thence to Illinois, and from Illinois to Wisconsin

In 1843 she was married to Rev Hiram Hersey who in 1848 united with the Wisconsin Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church Mrs Hersey shared cheerfully with her companion in all the hardships of itinerant life in the wilds of Wisconsin before there was a foot of railroad in the state Souls were converted churches built and comforted through their instrumentality in that part of the country also they raised and educated a family of three children One of the daughters died in Hastings several years ago she was one of the most active members that ever belonged to the Methodist church in this city

Rev Hersey on account of poor health, took a superannuated relation to his conference, and in the spring of 1874 moved to Hastings with his family where he spent an active life in the church was respected highly by all who knew him and died the 11th of February 1884

Mrs Hersey was converted when she was a girl and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and remained until she died in perfect great peace She had her share of the trials and sorrows of life but her faith never wavered in God she was frank and free to express her mind without hypocrisy and she was honored by all who knew her She built herself a new house and moved into it a few weeks ago not to live only a short time, but to die Hosts of friends with willing hearts assisted her in her last sickness Her daughter [illegible] was with in all her sickness, and her son and his wife came from Iowa and were with her in her last hours, She left one son and one daughter and a host of friends to mourn her loss

The funeral was held in the Methodist church and was conducted by W. J. Jones [illegible] her friend and pastor assisted by Dr Britt Thus ended the life of one of the old settlers of Hastings

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Put Your Hand Into Hot Metal

It is more or less true that the naked hand may be plunged with impunity into molten metal M Bouligny, who made a special study of what he called the 'spheroidal' state of bodies proved on his own person that it is possible to plunge the hand into molten metal and yet sustain no injury The theory is this The hand of the operator having been carefully moistened with a very volatile liquid, such as alcohol or ether, is to be plunged rapidly into the molten metal, for some cases the natural humidity of the skin may do as well The moisture is thrown by its sudden contact with the metal into the spheroidal state, and there is therefore no actual contact between the hand and the metal, but a thin layer of vapor is interposed between them —Chatter

A Fastening for Barn Doors

To make a secure fastening for the large double doors of the barn bolt a narrow bar of iron to one of the doors at its middle point Notch the ends of the bars, one on the lower and one on the upper side to fit over iron hooks that are bolted to the door, one bending upward, the other downward The bar moves in the arc of a circle when the doors are fastened or unfastened This makes a secure fastening for large doors which are liable to be blown open if held only by a small hook on the inside of the same —New York Independent

George Campbell, Hopkinsville, Ky, says Burdock Blood Bitters is the best preparation for the Blood and Stomach ever manufactured.

Sneezing.

Ah! you sneeze! In old times at your nearest neighbor would pat you on the back and say, "God bless you" Even now this is a custom in some of the Norse countries The words are the remains of an old prayer or exorcism The reason is that anciently people believed that when one sneezed he inhaled a devil who had crawled up his nose, and was endeavoring to effect a lodgment in that manner If his nearest neighbor uttered the exorcism in time, the devil would be expelled, and the soul of the sneezer saved from peril Modern science shows that sneezing is the result of a cold, so there is a devil trying to effect an entrance after all The blood vessels in the nostrils have become congested from the effect of the cold, and the effect upon the sensitory nerves is the same as if an intruder or foreign body had made its way thither The lungs expand, the head is thrown up, then the lungs discharge their volume of air, the head is brought forward, and an effort is made to expel the intruder, so the act of sneezing is a danger signal In such cases take a dose of Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It at once stops the cold where it is, and eradicates it There is nothing that equals this great preparation in the treatment of diseases arising from sudden colds, coughs, and all diseases of the respitory organs When the lungs have been seriously affected, patients have been known to drink it from the bottle, not only with impunity, but with decidedly beneficial results

DODDS' CATARRH CURE.

LOCAL AND INTERNAL TREATMENT.

In order to cure catarrh it is necessary to allay the inflammation of the irritated membranes with a soothing application, cleanse the head of the plugging mucous secretions, and heal the discharging ulcers For cold in the head and nasal catarrh Dodds' local treatment does this without the aid of snuff, douches or fumes. If the disease has extended downwards, affecting the bronchial tubes or lungs, digestion and blood, the internal treatment both removes from the system the scattered poison, and by its building-up properties assists nature in restoring the impaired parts Send for our book treating on catarrh FOSTER, MILBURN & Co, proprietors, Buffalo, N. SOME years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus, and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea etc, we become scary We have found Chamberlain's Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about. It is somewhat similar to the usual cholera cures, but seems to contain ingredients that render it more pleasant to take and that do their work more quickly Sheriff Deveroux tells us that he is subject to cholera morbus, and recently felt a spell coming on, when he obtained a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and two doses made him all right We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house —Troy (Kan) Chief

✻A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES.✻

Intrinsic value is what every customer, rich or poor, is looking for, and often fails to get, as he does not pay enough attention to FIT, TRIMMING and WORKMANSHIP, while others fail because of a lack of knowledge of what constitutes these things.

We do not claim to know everything about the Clothing business, but can and will offer as many inducements to get and hold trade as any concern in the country.

For the Next 30 Days we will offer to the Trade

300 All Wool Men's Cassimere Suits at from $6.50 to $10 a Suit----Worth from $10 to $18.

THE Democratic party believes that no one is so competent to control and regulate elections as the fellow who does the swindling at the polls

THE indications now are that the lake front will be abandoned as a location for part of the Columbian Exposition In our opinion the sooner the lake front is abandoned the better it will be for the people and the worse it will be for a few speculators

IT is said that Springfield is flooded with counterfeit $10 bills which are new, having never been folded, was seen in the east some time ago and is a counterfeit of the Germania National Bank of New Orleans This conjunction of facts looks bad for counterfeit Bill Springer and points a strong chain of circumstances that this is part of Springer's campaign fund

OUR Prairie street neighbor seems to be in trouble about a reference the REPUBLICAN made to the President's family cow and the Democratic nominee for Congress The Prairie street editor is unable to determine whether it was intended for a joke [illegible] an illumination This reminds us of the story wherein it is said that Gen McClellan, at a time when Mr Lincoln was much troubled over the inactivity of the General captured a hundred cows and telegraphed the President asking what he should do with them to which Mr Lincoln replied Suck em George

OUR Prairie street tariff reform organ, playing with Long Jones statement that he knew of no Republican who is not going to the polls this fall, says, 'Oh yes it is the general opinion that most of them will bother [illegible] but does Long Jones know what ticket they are going to vote?' Well Long Jones may not know that, but of one thing we may be sure and that is that the Review and all other Democratic papers, before an election profess to believe that most of the Republican voters are anxious to vote the Democratic ticket but the Democratic [illegible] which began in 1861 have not yet been confirmed in the post [illegible] returns

Democratic Opinion of Courts

The [illegible], faithful to its master, gives its readers a long disquisition on the dangers arising from the Federal Election bill to the judiciary whose duty it will be if the bill becomes a law, to carry it into effect The reform organ declares that the judges will become contaminated with partisan bias and that the ends of justice will not be met This argument was born in the South nearly a month ago, and after going the rounds of the Southern press their Northern allies are now taking it up and preaching it with all the vigor they would a new discovery

The whole argument is calculated to show that our courts will, in spite of their dignity as courts, in spite of the training of the judges in their profession, and in utter disregard of the oath of office which they assume permit themselves to be controlled by partisan bias and that judgment will be rendered regardless of justice, in favor of the party to which the judge may chance to belong In the first place, this sort of argument shows the Democratic opinion of our judges to be poor and it necessarily follows that a class of men who hold such opinions must have a [illegible] poor opinion of the stability of our institutions

In the second place such a belief on the part of Democratic leaders accounts for the fact that ninety per cent of all the election frauds which have been proven and for which men have been punished have been perpetrated by members of the Democratic party These conditions, chargeable to the Democratic party, have made necessary the special election laws of Illinois and New York and the Federal supervisor law of 1871 and the proposed Federal election law which only enlarges the scope of the law of 1871

The Republican party on the other hand, has faith in the courts of the land and is willing to trust them so far as is sought by the Federal election bill to place power in their hands Except in the trials of those who may be guilty of frauds at the polls, the bill only provides that the court shall upon application appoint supervisors of elections and in the very nature of things the supervisor becomes an officer of the court, subject to all the restraints which are put upon court officers by the general law, which, of itself is a guaranty of his good conduct or his punishment in case of any mischievous conduct In the light of past experience, under the present law creating supervisors of election, the courts can still be relied on, whether the Democratic party believes them absolutely imbecile or not

No Thermopylae for Johnston

Washington Letter Ex Senator Clingman of North Carolina, spends a great deal of his time at the Arlington Hotel with ex Gov Andrew Gregg Curtin, and the war Governor fights over again with the ex Confederate, Gen Clingman in absolute good nature, all the incidents of the great struggle Ex Senator Clingman was an old-time Whig forty years ago He is now 82 years age. It is amusing to hear him tell of his hair breadth escapes in the imminent deadly breach with Gen Joe Johnston, while himself a Confederate General One story is good enough to repeat This is it 'I heard Gen Joe Johnston had said, as soon as we heard of Lee's surrender, that he intended to give up the fight I was ten miles away I never will forget that day As I came dashing down to the headquarters of the General commanding on my gray charger, I said 'General, we must make this a Thermopylae of the new world, and if need be, I'll lead the van now myself, sah' 'Thermopylae' said Johnston 'that kind of talk might do for old bucks like you and me Clingman, but for the young men in the army who have wives and children to feed and cotton to plant and a living to make, it is too late at this stage of the game for any Greek business at this end of the line' I subsided, said Clingman, 'and Joe Johnston sensibly surrendered the next day"

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

Last Day's Meeting of the National Encampment.

A SESSION DEVOTED TO BUSINESS.

The Events of the Week Fittingly Concluded by a Grand Banquet—Boston's Bounty—The American Soldier.

BOSTON, Aug 14—The Grand Army encampment was not called to order until nearly eleven o'clock to-day Past Commander in Chief Merrill presented the report of the pension committee, which was adopted by a unanimous rising vote The encampment expressed its thanks for the valuable report of the committee

At this point General Alger requested Comrade Sherman to step upon the platform, and as the General walked down the aisle there was a storm of applause and cheers Comrade Warner was then requested to ascend the platform with Past Commander in-Chief Devins General Sherman then in a feeling manner presented Comrade Warner with a beautiful candelabrum, clock and set Comrade Warner eloquently responded

The presentation was made in behalf of the National encampment.

The committee on changes in the rules and regulations presented its report recommending various changes

A minority report in favor of adopting a resolution providing for the substitution of the old ritual for the present one was adopted by a large majority

The committee reported adversely on the proposition to change the rules so that hereafter past department commanders shall not be entitled to seats in the National encampment Adopted

The committee on address of Commander in Chief presented its report, heartily commending the report and thoroughly indorsing the just policy set forth

The committee offered a resolution that the council of administration prepare suitable testimonials of appreciation by the Grand Army of the Republic to its Grand Commander in Chief Alger

Recess

At the afternoon session resolutions were adopted favoring the removal of General Grant's remains from Riverside to Arlington, provided it was in accordance with Mrs Grant's wishes, thanking Congress for passing and the President for approving pension laws, favoring the making of Ford's Theater, in Washington a National museum for war mementoes, and favoring the exemption of veterans from examination in the classified civil service

The majority report of the committee on pensions was rejected and a minority report was substituted It reaffirms and indorses the resolutions passed at former encampments and asks for the passage of a service pension bill

B I Stevens of Cynthiana was elected Surgeon in Chief and M W Reed, of Denver Chaplain in Chief

General Veasey named as his Adjutant General Jos H Goulding, of Rutland Vt and John Taylor, of Philadelphia Quartermaster General s

After the installation of officers the encampment closed

The Conclusion of the Whole Matter.

BOSTON, Aug 15—The principal events of the Grand Army week were fittingly concluded last evening by a grand banquet in Mechanics' Hall, complimentary to the delegates to the encampment and invited guests

Among the invited guests who occupied the seats of honor were General Sherman, Governor Brackett, Mayor Hart Lieutenant Governor Haile General Sickles, Collector Beard Hon John D Long and Past Commander in-Chiefs Devins Merrill Kountz, Fairchild and Warner

At half past nine o'clock the new Commander in Chief Judge Veasey, entered with Corporal Tanner This was the signal for a great shout the veterans arising, waving handkerchiefs and napkins and shouting 'Veasey, Veasey' Soon after General Alger came in and was similarly greeted, the veterans arising at the call of Department Commander Innes and giving three cheers for the Commander in Chief

It was half past ten o'clock before the last c[illegible]e—an elegant and well filled cigar case bearing likenesses of Alger and Innis—had been served to each gentleman present At eleven o'clock, Colonel Charles Taylor of the Boston Globe was introduced as toast master of the evening and in his own inimitable way proceeded to address the assembly After a few preliminary remarks Colonel Taylor introduced Major Morrill who briefly responded in behalf of Ex Governor Long, chairman of the executive committee, who had been obliged to withdraw Commander in-Chief Veasey was then introduced He was very hoarse from much speaking, and after a few remarks in the endeavor to secure order thanked the assembly for their cordial greeting, not to him but to his office

Colonel Taylor then introduced Governor Brackett who responded briefly

General Sherman was then introduced and addressed the assemblage After referring to his own pleasure in Boston's entertainment the General said

I am glad that you have taken command I have seen one young man pass to-day and a new one installed with that gentleness and subordination to authority which makes our American history and which is the best promise of a glorious future of any single feature in our American Government In looking back upon the past, I one of your old commanders am well pleased with you, my sons [Applause]

General Sickles, General Devens, Major Warner, General Fairchild and Corporal Tanner also spoke, and were greeted with enthusiastic applause

GREAT FIRE IN LOUISVILLE.

A Small Ocean of Whisky and Much Other Property Destroyed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky, Aug 14—At eleven o'clock this morning fire was discovered issuing from the warehouse of the Beargrass Distillery Company on Storey avenue near Frankfort, in the extreme eastern part of the city The distillery proper caught fire in a moment, and before the fire department could get to work the whole establishment was a roaring furnace of flames The fire spread to the Great Western Pork House on the east and from that to the Old Kentucky Woolen Mills, one of the largest jeans manufacturing concerns in the South

Later.

LOUISVILLE, Ky, Aug 14—At half past one o'clock the fire was under control The immense warehouse of the Kentucky Distilling Company is a complete wreck and the entire plant of the Great Western pork house of Conrad & Seiler is totally destroyed, including the cattle and hog pens and the stock of meat The records of the Internal Revenue office show that the warehouse contained 23 000 barrels of whisky Much of this whisky had been sold and was insured by the purchaser. The total loss is estimated at $870,000, divided as follows On whisky, $500,000 on distillery plant, $200,000, on the pork house $150,000, other losses $20,000 In addition to the above the United States Government sustain a negative loss of $890,000 in uncollected taxes All of the property destroyed was well insured

The National Association of Amateur Oarsmen.

WORCESTER, Mass Aug 15—The executive committee of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen held a meeting at the Bay State House yesterday morning and reorganized the board of officers President W H Garfield was again elected and Charles Catlin, of Chicago was elected vice president, W H Gibson, secretary, of Washington was also re-elected, and H K. Hinchman was again chosen treasurer. J A St. John resigned from the executive committee His resignation was accepted, and Fred D Standish, of Detroit, was elected in his place After some considerable routine business the meeting adjourned

A Bloody Fight Between Negro Laborers and Gamblers

BIRMINGHAM Ala Aug 15—At the Shelby Iron works, in Shelby County, Tuesday night, a boody fight occurred between the negro laborers and a crowd of negro gamblers Several women were also mixed up in it. Three men and one woman were killed, and eight or ten persons were wounded Mary Jones was shot through the head and instantly killed Sam Mason's throat was cut with a razor, and he died in a few minutes George Davis and another man, unknown, were shot to death None of the wounded are mortally injured

Wiped Out the Business Portion of the Town

BUFFALO, N Y Aug 15—A special from Austin, Potter County, Pa, states that a fire started on Main street in that place late Thursday night, and burned with great fierceness until four o'clock yesterday morning wiping out the business portion of the town including the Buffalo Hardware Company's establishment and the Ellsworth House No estimate is given of the loss

The Largest Crop Ever Known.

MONTREAL, Can, Aug 15—Joseph MacDonald the expert sent by the Chicago Board of Trade to inspect the grain crop throughout Manitoba, reports that that province will this year have the largest crop known in its history. THE GREAT STRIKE.

The Situation Without Any Material Change.

THE END EVIDENTLY DRAWING NEAR.

Trains Moving with Greater Regularity—The Blockade Broken—Pinkerton Men Still in Charge—No Firemen's Strike Looked For.

The Situation Practically Unchanged.

BUFFALO, N Y, Aug 15—The situation in this city to-day is practically unchanged In the depot passenger trains are running closely on time, and the new men were doing their work in fair shape It could be seen easily that the hands employed were inexperienced and great inconvenience to travelers was the result. However, no serious delay was occasioned The train house was kept clear, but in the yards coaches and cars were more scarce than usual, and this gave the new men more switching room

On Tuesday last several switchmen at East Buffalo were ordered to go to the Exchange-street depot to take the places of the strikers, and on their refusal they were discharged This is said to have made the switchmen sore, and it is rumored that they are ready for trouble

On the Lackawanna the men have also had some trouble, although it is said to be entirely outside the present strike It is not known how serious it is

The Central has been moving but little freight out of East Buffalo, but the reason is claimed to be on account of the crowded condition of the roads East The Erie and Lehigh Valley have been moving east a large amount of freight consigned to the Central, thus relieving that road's Western connections

Meetings of the strikers were held as usual last evening, but nothing was made public concerning their transactions

A New York Central fireman who was asked if orders had been given to the firemen to strike, said "No, sir, and there wont be any such orders, and if there were they would not be obeyed The engineers and firemen are working for their living, and will keep their jobs They have tried to get us out, but they won't succeed, because we don't want to go out. We have no reason to."

At noon the strikers issued a call for an emergency meeting at two o'clock this afternoon

Trains Moving with Greater Frequency.

SYRACUSE N Y, Aug 14—The only change in the strike here since yesterday is the greater frequency with which freight trains are moving east and west. The Knights of Labor are as confident of success this evening as they were when they first went out, and they hint mysteriously at future developments which, they say, will determine the struggle in their favor Outside of their own statement, however, there is no evidence to sustain their view of the strike Freight is being received here for Western points as usual, but none is taken for the East, though orders to accept it are, the railroad authorities say, expected at any moment The places of the strikers are being rapidly filled

The Pinkerton men are still at Syracuse, and the freight yards, which are more than a mile long, are patroled day and night by them and the twenty-five special deputy sheriffs assigned to assist them in guard duty Every thing is reported quiet there to night and no further trouble is anticipated There are several freight trains in the yard yet

The firemen continue to manifest sympathy with the striking knights.

Broke the Blockade.

ALBANY, N Y, Aug 14—The Central railroad has broken the blockade and this evening four freight trains were moved west and three south Each train was protected by about twenty Pinkertons No opposition was made by the strikers

The men on the Delaware & Hudson road went back to work last night without any concessions being made by the road The strike so far as that road is concerned seems to be over, although the men are as strong in numbers and as confident as ever There was a fracas at East Albany this evening between Pinkerton men and strikers in which the latter were worsted No blood was spilled, but two prisoners were rescued

Take No Stock in the Report

SYRACUSE, N Y, Aug 14—The firemen here take no stock in the report of a strike ordered for them as told yesterday by the Press dispatches Some are opposed to such action and others would favor it All is quiet at DeWitt, and freight trains are moving The situation here is unchanged Knights of Labor here expect important news to-day which they believe will decide the struggle

Renominated for Congress.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn, Aug 15—An Ashland (Wis) special to the Tribune says Myron H McCord, the present representative of this, the Ninth district, was renominated by acclamation in the Republican convention held here last night. The platform as adopted favors the Lodge Election bill, the Disability Pension bill and State Compulsory Education law

FROM WASHINGTON.

Republican Senators in Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—The Republican Senators held a caucus last night at eight o'clock to discuss, and if possible to formulate an order of business to govern the Senate during the rest of the present session in Congress There were thirty-nine Senators present. Senator Edmunds presided No definite proposition was brought before the caucus, but the subject discussed was the advisability of laying aside the Federal Election bill and arranging with the Democratic Senators to have a vote on the Tariff bill in the near future Both of the Pennsylvania Senators, Senator Plumb and others advocated laying the Election bill over They said that it would be bad policy to keep Congress here much after the first of September, because members of both Houses were needed in the States to take part in the canvass for members of the House of Representatives.

Senator Aldrich and other members of the finance committee expressed the belief that the Democrats could keep the Senate busy with the Tariff bill for two months longer unless some agreement was reached, and they urged the necessity of putting the Tariff bill through at an early day Senator Aldrich said he did not believe the Senate could pass a resolution to amend the rules so as to provide for calling the previous question. He said that it would be necessary to have a quorum of Republicans present, and there was so much sickness now among the members that it was extremely doubtful if a quorum could be got together

Senator Spooner and Senator Hoar urged the necessity of passing the Elections bill now and the hopelessness of trying to pass it during the short session

As one Senator expressed it after the adjournment, Senator Spooner "read the riot act" to the assemblage

Finally, after more than two hours of debate, without coming to any agreement as to the future action of the Senate, and without fixing a day for reassembling the caucus adjourned

The debate developed the fact that about fifteen of the Senators present were in favor of letting the Election bill go over

A special injunction of secrecy was placed on those who were present, and one Republican Senator who is noted for extreme frankness would only shake his head and say, in response to inquiries "We are all split up"

Pardons Granted and Refused by the President

WASHINGTON, Aug 15—The President, in denying the application for pardon in the case of Alva W Butler of Oregon, for violation of the postal laws, says 'Nothing has developed since the trial, so far as appears, to create any doubt of the guilt of the prisoner"

He granted a pardon to Jarrett Taylor, convicted in Tennessee of violation of internal revenue laws and sentenced to six months imprisonment and a fine of $100, in the case of Rufus Smith convicted of selling liquor without a license in Virginia, and sentenced on November 23 1888, to two months imprisonment and a fine of $100, and confinement in jail until the fine is paid This case has been before the President several times On the way to jail Smith jumped from the train and escaped While a fugitive from justice a petition was presented to the President, which he indorsed as follows I will not examine an application for pardon while the petitioner is a fugitive from the process of the court' Subsequently Smith surrendered himself, and the President indorsed his petition to the effect that so much of the sentence imposing a fine be remitted

Decatur's Victorious Committee at Boston Bound West.

Decatur is to have the National G. A. R. Memorial Hall. That is a settled fact, as announced by the REPUBLICAN last evening. Then came another telegram as follows:

Boston, Mass., Aug. 15.—Encampment approves Memorial Hall at Decatur. Ovation to Kanan and Steele. J. M. CLOKEY.

The committee will return in a few days, and Decatur will give them a reception that will be patriotic and unanimous. Much is yet to be done before the commodious hall is under construction, but Decatur is equal to the occasion and we will get there just the same.

Unfurl the banners. Decatur is on top in Grand Army enterprises as in everything else.

NOTES FROM BOSTON.

Mrs. Steele is in receipt of a letter from her husband, Major Steele, written the day before the Encampment took favorable action on the National Memorial Hall for Decatur, Ill. It appears that the Department of the Potomac had the hall bee in its bonnet. It wanted a Lincoln Memorial Hall to be built of material from the old Ford Theatre, where the President was shot, and New York wanted a Prisoners of War Memorial Hall. There were two other projects of the same kind before the Encampment, but Decatur won in the battle for the endorsement.

In the Boston Post's description of the parade appears this squib: "Then came old Post 1, of Decatur, Ill., with M. F Kanan, the first commander, marching sturdily along in the ranks, although he is rather an old man." Evidently the Post reporter sized up somebody else for the Captain.

David Oxer Dead.

David Oxer, the well known bachelor farmer, of Macon, who has been a patient at St. Mary's Hospital several weeks, died yesterday afternoon at the age of 53 years. Dropsy was the cause of his death. The remains were taken to Macon by relatives last evening. The deceased owned nearly 400 acres of fine land.

The Teachers' Sociable.

The sociable held last evening at the High School building by the teachers attending the Macon County Teachers' Institute, was a very agreeable and successful affair. The attendance was large and the programme, as published in yesterday's REPUBLICAN, was both faithfully and well rendered. There was an unusual amount of sociability among those at the meeting, which is attributed to Prof. Boltwood's short talk on the art of conversation.

Old Age.

Mrs. Mary Serches, aged 85, died at the poor farm this forenoon. She has a son west of Decatur, a son in Warrensburg and a daughter at Canton, Ill. She had been a county charge since last winter.

Found Dead.

Amos Benedict was found lying dead yesterday in the Pickrell cemetery, near Illiopolis, of which he was sexton. Heart disease.

Appointed.

James H. Montgomery has been appointed as special agent to collect statistics of manufactures for the census.

Another Suspect.

Marshal Mason arrived in the city last night from Warsaw, Mo, having in custody a man named E. Johns, who had been arrested on suspicion of having made the criminal assault on Mrs. Julia Foster in July west of Decatur. Johns is in jail and will be visited by Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Shehan this afternoon for the purpose of identifying him if possible. It is stated by the officers that Johns was in the Foster neighborhood the day of the assault, and he left that night or the day following going to Belleville, Ill. He remained there awhile, and received letters from his son, who after a time went to Belleville in person to visit his father. Marshal Mason kept himself posted as to the movements of Johns, and finally had him arrested at Warsaw. Johns states that he is innocent and asserts that he can establish an alibi without any trouble.

Accused of Murder.

Mrs. John Holden and her son, Edward, are having their preliminary examination at Monticello to-day, on a charge of having murdered Harley Russell in June last. Albert Durham, first arrested for the crime, makes a sensational confession. He says he heard Mrs. Holden make threats against the life of Harley Russell. She said among other things that Russell had done enough to be waylaid, and that she was bound to get rid of him, and if Edward did not shut him off she would. On the evening of the shooting she said if she had half a chance Russell would never see home that night. The theory is that she disguised herself in Durham's clothes, and either held the horse or did the shooting. She is a vindictive woman, said to have Indian blood in her veins.

YESTERDAY was visitor's day at the camp at Rea's Bridge, where the choir boys of the Episcopal church have been enjoying out door life for a week past. Several hacks of Decatur people besides a number of private parties visited the place and spent the day fishing, boating and shooting. All returned in the evening much delighted with the visit.

AFTER the bicycle parade through the city this afternoon, Goodman's Band got aboard one of the electric cars. Turning at Water street Will Gilkeson, the bass drummer, was thrown from the car, and was seriously injured by the fall. He limped when he got up, and went on pounding the drum after a short stop.

RUSSELL GREEN received a letter last evening from his friend, C. N. Brown, who is in New York city. He writes that he is pleased with the contract and that he rehearsed for the first time yesterday. He has a contract to sing bass with the Emma Abbott opera company during the coming season.

THE bicycle races, which are in progress this afternoon, have excited a great deal of interest. The handsome bicycle watch charm, which is offered to the most graceful rider, is being hotly contested for by George Bohson and Fred Mueller.

Now is the time to buy hard coal. E L. Martin is selling it at $6.50 per ton. Telephone 433; 628 North Main street. 11d2w

Two New Recruits.

At the regular meeting of Col. I. C. Pugh Camp, No. 14, held last night, two new recruits were received into the ranks. They were Robert J. Oglesby, son of Ex-Gov. Oglesby, and Arthur Gallagher, son of the late Judge A. J. Gallagher. There were nearly forty members of the camp at the meeting and a very interesting session was held. After the camp session Captain Cassell called the drill squad to the front and made final arrangements to go to the national meeting at St. Joe, Mo., where the squad of twenty-one men will engage in the prize drill against squads from other camps. Decatur will not be satisfied with anything less than first prize, $450.

Promotion.

The many Decatur friends of Mr. W. F. LaBonta will be gratified to learn of his recent good luck. He was formerly located in Decatur as chief clerk for G. W. Stevens, then superintendent of the Wabash. Lately he was chief clerk for E. A. Gould, at Peru, Ind., superintendent of the Wabash Eastern Division. Mr. Stevens is the present general superintendent of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company, and Mr. S. has called Mr. LaBonta to Richmond, Va., to take the position of storekeeper for the C. & O. He was to go on duty August 1st. This appointment is an important advance for the gentleman, as the salary is considerably larger than he received at either Decatur or Peru.

Coming Back.

The REPUBLICAN is in receipt of the following letter in to-day's mail:

KANSAS CITY, MO., Aug. 12.

EDS. REPUBLICAN, Decatur, Ill.:—Please be kind enough to say in your valuable paper that I and the three children will arrive in Decatur on or before September 10. I will engage as usual in the law and pension business, and the children will go to school this fall and winter. We are tired of the west. Very respectfully,
H. PASCO.

Death of a Young Mother.

News reached Decatur yesterday of the death at Denver of Mrs. Minnie Routt Hartzell, eldest daughter of ex-Gov. Routt. She left a babe ten days old, and was known to many of our citizens.

Dr. D. N. Moore departed this noon for Chicago, in response to a telegram announcing the alarming illness of his daughter, Mrs. Lyda Moore Porter, who has been suffering with an abcess in the ear. Her mother has been in Chicago for some time.

Hit With a Gun.

Last evening Henry Lightfoot, while having some trouble with a dog, near the East Park Boulevards, got into a scrap with Frank Garrett, the owner of the canine, and in the melee a pistol exploded and Lightfoot thought he was shot. He reported in great haste to Dr. Kennedy, who found that there was no wound by a bullet, but that there was a lump on the side of the head as if caused by coming in contact with a club or the butt end of a gun. It is probable that the pistol was accidentally discharged

The Parade.

The Decatur Cycling Club races are in progress this afternoon at the Trotting park. The parade was quite imposing and novel. About 100 wheels were in line, and Goodman's Band headed the procession.

HOLINESS PEOPLE IN CAMP.

The City of Tents at Oakland Park —Bishop Taylor.

Full List of the Scores of Campers.

The annual meeting of the Western National Camp-meeting Association, of which J. R. Jones, of Williamsville, Ill., is president, and J. W. Welsh, of Hindsboro, Ill., is secretary, began at Oakland Park to-day, with over 80 of the 102 tents occupied by people of Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Indiana, California and other states, with other campers to arrive. Rev. William McDonald, of Boston, president of the National Association, occupied the rostrum at the opening service, and Joshua Gill, of Boston, had charge of the singing. There will be several services every day, beginning at 6 o'clock a. m., closing with the night meeting.

Bishop Taylor, of Africa, will be present two days of the meeting, either on August 20 and 21, or August 21 and 22. The time of his arrival is not positively known. Rev. Pepper and 25 other members of the National Association, will be at the meeting. Tents have been reserved for them.

The association has full control of the grounds, and all hucksters have been excluded. Only the refreshment departments will be permitted. E. S. McCarty, of Decatur, has charge of the dining tent.

Below is given a complete list of the campers. The list does not represent all of the occupants, as in many cases four to eight persons will sleep in one tent, making the population at the camp 300 to 400.

The meetings will continue for ten days, and as the weather is favorable there is every prospect for a very successful meeting.

Port Limon Bananas Delayed.

We are sorry that we have been unable to fill our orders with Port Limon bananas for the past four days. The delay has been caused by disabled steamers not arriving on time. We could have filled in with other fruit, but as it is not near as good as Port Limon, we thought best to hold off until our regular car would arrive, which will be Friday. We hope to not be out of this fruit again soon, but this is the first time this season we have been out of bananas. Accidents will happen to these steamers occasionally.

A Bloody Riot Recalled.

"Nineteen years ago today," said Inspector Byrnes—"I shall never forget that day's duty. I was ordered over to the Orangemen's headquarters from my precinct at daybreak—I was captain of the Twenty first then—and took every one of my men along except old Sergt Davenport and a doorman. We expected trouble, and I had a lot of hand grenades [illegible] by the second story windows in the old station house in Thirty fifth street, told the sergeant to lock the doors and pelt any mob that would try to enter. Old Dave was as good as an army when it came to sticking. He just sat on that pile of hand grenades and waited.

He had a good long wait if we hadn't. Those who walked in that bloody procession from the Eighth avenue headquarters of the Orangemen to the old Haymarket in the [illegible] will [illegible] remember it [illegible] their dying [illegible] the crowd yell now [illegible] began to shoot right [illegible] From the rear, from the [illegible] and [illegible] A hundred must have been killed [illegible] the end of that march of terror and death.

It was 3 o'clock the next morning before we got back to our station. It was as dark and still as the grave. As we hammered on the door and yelled a [illegible] in the second story was slowly and cautiously opened and old Dave said:

'Who is there?'

'Open the door,' yelled the tired men. 'Open it or we'll burst it in!'

You will [illegible] came from upstairs in shrill tones and in the window appeared the old sergeant fighting mad with a hand grenade in each fist and an armful in reserve [illegible] carries snowballs. 'Stand back there or there will be murder. Back I say.'

We had come all the long and bloody way fighting every inch of it without a thought of showing the white feather. Every man there [illegible] of us would have been killed twice over rather than turn tail. But we ran then. Before old Dave with his armful of hand grenades the army that had saved [illegible] from sacking [illegible] and fled. The sergeant [illegible] the fort alone until we [illegible] him from shelter into comprehending that we were not the enemy. [illegible]—New York Telegram.

An Asylum That Collects Stamps

There is an asylum for orphan girls in [illegible] Switzerland, which finds a main [illegible] for all the old postage stamps sent to it. Nearly everybody [illegible] and near acquainted with the fact sends to the asylum [illegible] second hand stamps, and [illegible] information of those who are ignorant [illegible] of stamps and also setting forth [illegible] which they are applied [illegible] stamps [illegible] collectors while the common ones [illegible] decorative purposes [illegible] to ornament screens, [illegible] says the circular [illegible] The circular does [illegible] American green stamp of the postcard [illegible] decoration.

Over [illegible] of stamps were received by the institution from all over the world in 1888, and considerably larger number in 1889. The stamps are assorted by the children and put up in packages of [illegible] 100 each. Those collected in 1888 were sold for 1,200 francs or $240, and those of 1889 for $200. People Wonder

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within [illegible] mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement made by Mrs. Lake is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother in England was for a long time unable to attend to his occupation by reason of sores on his feet. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."—A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.

You want the goods. Why? Because we are going to sell many goods at positively

Less Than Cost of Manufacture.

The season for Summer goods is nearly over, and we find that we still have a large stock in this line. We are determined to turn all these goods into money if sacrifice prices can do.

How can we most thoroughly convince you that the prices we shall quote are genuine sacrifice prices? How can we make you understand that the actual manufacturer's cost of many of the goods we offer is greater than the price we propose to sell to you at retail? If you will take pains to look over the bills you have paid in past years, if you will refresh your memory or look things up in your memorandum book, we believe you can understand almost as well as we do that the bonanza in buying shoes is at the great Ferriss & Lapham shoe store and that the time is now.

LOOK OVER THESE PRICES:

Ladies' Dongolo Oxford, patent trim, wood heel, our former price was $2. We will sell it hereafter at $1.00, and it is the best bargain ever offered in this line in Decatur.

Ladies Russet Oxfords for $1.00, our former price $1.75 and $2.25, and that was below what other dealers charged you for goods of like quality.

Men's $2.50 Russet Oxfords at $1.50. Here's a bargain and no mistake.

Men's $3 Russet bals at $1.65—how's that for a cut?

Ladies $3 hand-sewed shoes at $2.25, better buy them, they are dirt cheap.

Men's Calf shoes, in Congress and Lace, were very cheap at $2.50. We will sell them now for $2. How does it strike you?

Men's calf boots, all solid, we have sold them at $2.50, and they were a bargain at that figure. We will close them out now at $1.75. They can't be produced at the factory for the money.

A better grade of Men's calf boots, we have sold them regularly at $3. You can buy them now at $2.25. Buy a pair and put them away for future use.

All our Men's calf shoes which have been sold at $2.50 and $3 and all finer grades will be offered at less money than they can be secured for at any place in this city or elsewhere.

Ladies black Wigwam Slippers at 40 cents—have been selling regularly at $1.00. The present selling price is away below the wholesale cost figure. In the language used on the race track

"WE ARE OUT FOR THE STUFF!"

We don't offer a few baits, but we put the knife in all around. We have everything we advertise, give you the goods at prices we advertise and confidently expect you to come and avail yourselves of this opportunity. Leather is going up, prices to the manufacturer have nearly or quite doubled, and you are not going to get shoes as cheap another year. When the present stocks are exhausted there will be a rise in the prices at the factories. That means increased cost to the jobber, increased cost to the retailer, increased cost to the consumer. The time to buy is now and the place to buy is at the great
